

On February 19, 2005, the Lord called Elaine home. This is the Elaine that I wrote about in my first three books. For several years prior to her death Elaine was in very poor health and lived quietly. She was not in a public ministry of any sort.

I want to personally thank all of you who held her up in your prayers. Rejoice with me that she is now in the presence of Jesus Christ, instead of her former master.

Thank you,
Rebecca (Brown) Yoder, M.D., D.D.
